

WALK WITH A SCHOLAR

The first external mentor programme was done by Dr Arun Kumar Dept of Politics, University College, Thiruvananthapuram. His class started by calculating the available time to live for an eighteen year old student. He gave numerous examples of people who had very poor background who later became very successful persons. He also exposed different opportunities in the media world.

